NORMAL CANCELS GAME WITH ST. LOUIS U. FRESHMEN

To Play McKendree at Lebanon Thanksgiving—Lombard, Bradley and Charleston Contenders for Conference Honors

Owing to the battered and crippled condition of the S. I. N. U. team Coach Mac canceled the game to have been played last Friday with the St. Louis University Freshmen on the Normal field. The St. Louis freshmen not being in the conference the game will not count against the Normal's conference standing. With so many men listed on the hospital list Coach Mac deemed it best to allow the fellows a week to heal their bruises and to get in shape for the final conference game of the season when they meet McKendree on Thanksgiving Day. The Maroons went into battle a week ago Friday against the Anna Athletics with four of her regulars warming the benches and this materially weakened her to the extent that the Anna team managed to nose the S. I. N. U. out with a single score. With an additional week of rest it is hoped that the Maroons may go into their final encounter in full fighting strength. The game with the St. Louis freshmen might have resulted in more casualties and that would have wrecked the hopes of a victory Thanksgiving Day. Hunter, Dunn, Cox, McIlrath, are the four Maroons who were forced to remain out of play in the Anna game on account of injuries and it is expected that these regulars will be in condition and ready to don their harness for the final game.

The Maroons close their season of '22 when they battle McKendree at Lebanon Thanksgiving Day. With their full quota of regulars on the line up the Maroon sweated warriors are in great hopes of annexing the victory. McKendree has a fair team, though she has suffered several defeats, and will give their Turkey Day opponents a real battle.

The Blue and White squad of the Charleston Normal virtually clinched the championship of the minor division of the Little 19 conference on Armistice Day when they vanquished the fast Lincoln team by the close score of 3-0. Charleston finished the season with a winning percentage of 1000 per cent, winning four games, tying two, and losing none. The E. I. eleven scored a total of 63 points to their opponents 25 in a series of six games. Only two teams scored on the E. I. team, Blackburn scoring 13 points and the S. I. N. U. 12.

FORMER TEACHER RETURNS

Last Monday morning we were very agreeably surprised to see the smiling face of Miss Lillian Gubleman at chapel.

Miss Gubleman was a much beloved instructor in the English department of the S. I. N. U. for a number of years. She is a graduate of the University of Chicago from which she took her masters degree. She is one of those rare individuals who possess a fund of common sense, humor and tact, along with great strength of mind.

It was due to Miss Gubleman's efforts that the first Pep Club was organized here. Loyalty to the school was always her slogan.

When the U. S. went into the World War, Miss Gubleman, who is intensely patriotic, gave up her position to go into the Y. W. C. A. camp work. At the close of the war she accepted a position in the Valley City, N. D. State Teachers' College of which Dr. Allen is president.

Miss Gubleman is away from her present duty this year to do some post graduate work at the University of Chicago.

Last Monday evening Misses King and Jones entertained for Miss Gubleman, having as guests those members of the faculty who were here when she was an instructor in the S. I. N. U.

During Miss Baldwin's illness, Miss Gubleman will have charge of the work of the Latin Department.

Lombard and Bradley Colleges are still racing neck and neck for the Illinois intercollegiate conference honors. Both teams won their games last Sunday and the outlook is that each will finish the season with a perfect record. Lombard showed their mettle when they held the strong Detroit U to a scoreless tie. Bradley thoroughly demonstrated their championship ability when they defeated the Lake Forest eleven 28-6. Bradley has up to date scored six victories, tied one game and hasn't lost a one. The Peoria eleven has scored a total of 194 points to their opponents 21.

Y. W. C. A.

On Tuesday evening at the regular hour the Y. W. C. A. held their annual Recognition Service for new members. The service was proceeded by a vocal solo by Miss Wanda Johnson which was much appreciated by the audience.

Waller-Egyptian Case To Be Tried Before Judge Edward Vieuxtemps Miles, Jr.

In the December Term of the Agora-Illinae Court.

The court grants trial to petition of Waller filed by attorneys Loy and Callis, November 15.

Below is a copy of the petition as presented to our attorneys, Neely and Lentz, by the court.

Carbondale, Illinois.
Nov. 15, 1922.

State of Illinois, County of Jackson, ss.

In the Agora-Illinae Court of Jackson County.

Corem Waller vs. The Egyptian—Trespass on the case.

Corem Waller, plaintiff, by Loy and Callis, his attorneys, complaints of the Egyptian, defendant of a plea of trespass on the case:

For that, whereas, the plaintiff, before and at the time of the committing, by the defendant, of the several grievances, hereinafter mentioned, was a person of good name, credit and reputation, and deservedly enjoyed the esteem and good opinion of many persons.

Yet the defendant, well knowing the premises, but contriving and maliciously intending to injure the plaintiff and to bring him into public scandal and disgrace, heretofore, to-wit, on November 14, 1922, at the county aforesaid, falsely and maliciously did compose, and publish, and cause to be composed and published, of and concerning the plaintiff, a certain false, scandalous and malicious matters following, of and concerning the plaintiff, that is to say:

"Light" was given by the cabinet which presented the example of the "Abbess of the Glowing Light" as one worthy to be followed by all Y. W. C. A. members. As a symbol of the eternal love of Christ in our heart, each new member lighted the tiny candle which had been given her, from the altar candle flame. In singing the organization song, "Hymn of the Lighted."

This very impressive service taught our new members that the Young Women's Christian Association is something more than merely a social order, that our three-fold aim which is physical, intellectual and spiritual superiority, and our triangle emblem, with "yourself at the first point, everybody else at the second, upheld

Judge Miles, who will hear the Waller-Egyptian Case.

He, the defendant, falsely and maliciously did compose, and publish, and cause to be composed and published an article on the first page, column one of the Egyptian of November 14, 1922, A. D.

In consequence of the committing of which said grievances, by the defendant, the plaintiff has been, and is, injured in his good name, credit and reputation, and brought into public scandal and disgrace, and has been, and is, shunned and avoided by many persons, and otherwise injured.

To the damage of the plaintiff of ($50,000.00) Fifty Thousand Dollars, and therefore he sues.

Mr. Shryock attended the meeting of the Normal School Presidents at Urbana last week.

TO INTRODUCE YOU TO AUNT MIN

Everyone, in reading the Chicago Tribune, St. Louis Globe, or any other well known newspaper have noticed a section or part of the issue given over to certain people who help solve problems for the readers. Doctor Evans answers questions about different diseases, health protection, etc. Questions and answers as to the age and whereabouts, etc., of movie actors are to be found. Any difficulty of proper etiquette—any important questions as to how to help on, invigorate a developing romance are answered in these columns. Without doubt many and many a weary hour of worry is done away with by the wise advice give. Ask yourself this question.

Whose paper is the Egyptian? It is yours—it is every subscriber's. There is always a time when you need advice along one line or another. Your paper—the Egyptian has a way of giving you the best possible advice in anything from good etiquette down to what is the proper thing to do for a carbuncle or a fingernail. This authority specializes on love problems in its various forms. If you do not care to make your inquiries publicly connected with your name, you may avoid this by giving initials, or even a fictitious name. Write your question plainly on a piece of paper and mail or see that it is delivered to the Egyptian office, in care of Aunt Min. Don't slight her, maybe she may win you boys a wife, you girls a husband, or still better may advise you to do things which may cause your name to be entered on the list of famous men and women—Don't forget Aunt Min!

THE AGORA INITIATES

Last week the Agora held its regular initiation services. After the candidates received the Sixth Degree it is a well known fact that they feel more than ever to be first class Agorans and will undoubtedly do better work for the advancement of the order. The new members of the society are as follows:

Seniors—Robert Turner.

Juniors—Carl Smith, Clifton Bowers, John Heidman, Norman Beasley.
Sophomores—Cary Davis, George Cherry.

The old members are:

Senior College—John Hunsaker.

Seniors—Norvin Julian, August Meyer, Frank Smith, Willard Campbell, Ransom Sherretz, Corem Walker, Charles Goforth, James Mohan.

Juniors—Frank Watson, Ellis Crandle, Ivan Dexter, Killy Loy, Chas. Neely, Clyde Willoughby, Glenn Fishel.

Sophomores—Frank Hight.

The following attended the High School Conference at Urbana last week end: Mr. Muckelroy, Mr. Felts, Mr. Wham, Miss Bowyer and Miss Herron.

ART APPRECIATION CLUB

The regular meeting of the Art Appreciation Club was held last Thursday evening. An interesting program was given as follows:

Music by Wanda Sizemore.

Colonial Architecture, by Lenore Perdue.

Colonial Painting, by Thelma Deck.

At the regular meeting of this club on November 9th, they were favored with two excellent numbers, a violin solo, by Francis Smith, and a talk by Miss Jones.

Miss Jones related the details of her observation of Art during her tour of Europe last summer. Her talk was both entertaining and instructive, and was highly appreciated by all.

HAND IT IN

If you have an idea, a suggestion, you would like to have the student body know, a very good way, perhaps the best, is to write an article about it for your school paper, the Egyptian. Many S. I. N. U. students think the articles in every week are for someone else to write. The staff would more than appreciate your co-operation. Just imagine if every subscriber would hand in just one article during the year, think of the fine paper we would have. Make a resolve to keep your eyes and ears open for some good idea for your article for the Egyptian.

Don't let the year go by without a little help to make our weekly school paper the best put out by any college in the state.

Egyptian Editor.

S. I. N. U.

Dear Sir:

Have been wanting news from the good old school for some time. If the Egyptian is as good as it used to be, and I know it is, then I will soon have the news.

I am sending a check, amounting to one dollar, for the fall and winter copies. I will be with you during the spring term.

Wishing you the best of success with the paper, I remain,

A reader for the Normal.

CHARLES GABBERT, JR.

LET US BE THANKFUL

That there are only two more weeks of it—

That our forefathers were Puritans and we are not—

That there is a Friday afternoon for every Monday morning.

That our teachers aren't all cross on the same day—

That we have Tuesdays off—

That the Stumble Inn is only four seconds from the campus—

That there is always somebody else who hasn't gotten around to studying his lesson—

That we haven't had to use the new fire-escapes yet—

That Good English week has come and gone—

That we all don't have cancers—
That Thackeray didn't keep on writing books for us to read in Eng. III—

That we all don't have to wear black rimmed glasses—
That we don't have to gild our toenails to be in style.

THE OBELISK, '23

The attitude of the school toward the 1923 Obelisk is thus far highly commendable. Please continue to keep in mind that the book depends largely upon the co-operation of the entire school with the staff. One of the ways in which you can co-operate with us is by complying with the announcements to have pictures made. Please attend to this promptly. It is necessary that we get the work in to the engraver as soon as possible.

ALVIN FELTS, Editor.

JOKES AND PICTURES

We were glad to see so many jokes in evidence during Home-Coming and we are anxiously waiting to see your pictures. Did you know that we are planning to devote a whole page in the Obelisk to Home-Coming snapshots? To make this and the rest of the pages a success we must have your help. You will find the Obelisk box near the candy counter all ready to receive your pictures. Of course you know that it isn't just Home-Coming pictures we want, either. We are sure that you have some good pictures tucked away, hand them over to us and we'll make good use of them. We will also print a list of the donors of the best snapshots in the Egyptian.

Another thing, we want you to be on the lookout for good jokes. When you hear one, don't just laugh and forget it, write it down and put it in the Obelisk box.

"We admit that the 1923 Obelisk is going to be the best yet." If you help us you can feel a proprietary interest in it. C'mon folks! Let's all get busy.

The girls of the Junior class were entertained at Anthony Hall Tuesday evening by the Misses Bowyer, Clark and Hickson.

A "get acquainted" contest was held, Olive Johnston winning the prize, a box of fudge, for knowing the largest number of those present.

Light refreshments were served and all had a hilarious time planning other parties for the future.

MARION COUNTY STUDENTS MEET

The Marion county students of S. I. N. U. met Thursday for the first time this season. When roll was called we found that we had thirty-seven members of which seventeen will be graduated with the class of '23.

The following officers were elected: President, Glenn Ayre, Vice President, Harold Maxey, Sec. and Treas. Ruth Waddington, Reporter, Shorty Estes.

Come on Marion county, get on your toes and let's go. Show 'em we are here and make 'em believe it.

EDUCATIONAL VALUE OF THE CARTOON

That a few strokes of the cartoonist's pencil may have more education and influence in them than volumes of books is a well-known fact. Our politicians use this knowledge to the limit.

If one were to take the time to read the history of famous cartoons the work of Nash during the Civil war period would stand out conspicuously. What the wisdom of Lincoln and the war strategy of Grant could not accomplish the brush of Nash had no trouble to accomplish.

Looking back only about thirty years we find Mark Hanna the dictator of American politics. It was freely charged that Mr. Hanna was not averse to using his, and other influential men's money, to gain his political ends. Now arose the mighty Davenport and portrayed the genial Mark as a well-fed man, whose clothes had the dollar mark all over them. One had to be blind indeed not to catch the full meaning of this cartoon at once. Mr. Hanna was good-natured, as it behooves all professional politicians to be. He did not get angry about his flagellation in public prints. He had no need to be; for he won in the end.

Just now there are a series of cartoons appearing in the Chicago Tribune (this is no paid ad). A certain Andy is featured as an office-seeker. His fortunes seem to go up and down from day to day, if one may judge from the conversations heard at table. "I bet you a dollar Andy will go to congress," is frequently heard. These cartoons keep the interest of many people alive in the question of congressional elections. So far, so good. It is not much; but ought we not to be thankful for even this morsel of information for the general public? It may not teach us what "Newberryism" and such other newspaper slang as from time to time may bob up, but it relieves us for the time being for ennui, and that is something. Long may the cartoonist live!

The aim of the staff is not only to make the 1923 Obelisk the biggest and best ever published by the S. I. N. U., but to make it a true pan-path of the student body. This aim cannot be reached thru the efforts of the staff alone, therefore we are asking for your loyal support and co-operation.

With a class of one hundred sixty-two Normal Seniors and almost as many high school Seniors, it is impossible to know each of you personally. If you have appropriate verses you would like to have beside the pictures of you and your friends, please write them out and drop in the Obelisk box (on the first floor of the main building) or hand them to me. Any other suitable material will be greatly appreciated. Also if you are president of any of the various organizations it is very necessary that you give us your name together with the name of the organization you represent.

COREM WALLER,
Literary Editor.

No great enterprise can be launched unless it is backed by finance. Now we are planning, in fact we are not only planning, but we are really working, to make this one of the best Obelisks that has ever been put out. How can we do it? This is the way. The student body and faculty get behind us and be boosters instead of knocking, be ready to help instead of hindering. Be ready to act when we give suggestions, for I assure you everything will be managed in a "square deal" way.

I am sure you all agree that it is going to take a lot of money and you are right, it is. But we are making it just as cheap as we possibly can, in order to put out the book we have determined to put out. The price of the Obelisk this year will be only one price, $2.50, same as last. At this price, fully 90 per cent of the student body should take a book and if you don't, you'll always regret it. Now, we're ready to go, to take your subscription. Now show your color by subscribing.

NORVIN JULIAN,
Business Manager.

MORE WEDDING BELLS

Miss Helen Sanford of Herrin, Illinois, and Mr. Owen Shepherd of Centralia, were quietly married in the Christian church of Centralia, November 20.

Mrs. Shepherd was a member of the Junior class of S. I. N. U. and during her stay in Carbondale had made her home at Anthony Hall. We wish to extend the best of good wishes for their future happiness.

GETTING OUT A PAPER

Getting out a paper is no picnic.

If we print jokes, folks say we are silly.

If we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety.

If we publish things from other papers, we are too lazy to write.

If we stay on the job, we ought to be out rustling news.

If we are rustling news, we are not attending to the business in our own own department.

If we don't print contributions, we don't show proper appreciation.

If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.

Like as not some fellow will say we swiped this from an exchange.

We did.

Hark! all ye students, if you want to hear

All about the wants of the staff this year.

The Obelisk we are asked to make
As good or better than recent date.
So help us along as best you can,
By sending us something, yea, every man.

Now can't you devote an hour or two
To helping us make this book for you?
Of wit and humor, of snaps and such
We need new material, oh! so much.
If all will help and boost and give We'll have an Obelisk that long will live

In the hearts of all the students here
And honor the school we hold most dear.

ALINE NEFTZGER,

Art Editor.

ATTENDING TO DETAILS

In a first year meeting the Freshmen were planning a wiener roast.
Zoeller straightened up and informed them to pay as much attention to him as to any other of their teachers for he had an important question to vote upon, "How many have want mustard on your sandwiches?"

POSSUMS!

M-m-m-m boy! "Hand me another dog, Russell." "Gus, have you all the marshmallows?" These expressions and others issued from a group of young people gathered around a camp-fire. Massac had invited Pope and other friends to the annual possum hunt and wiener roast. The party had started from the front gate at 6:45 p. m., November 23, and after walking enough to sharpen the appetite, had built a camp-fire to enjoy the "possum." It was a live bunch and they had a live time. Everybody had lots to eat and plenty of appetite. Mr. Hotten and Miss Rue were the chaperons. There were about six counties represented, which goes to show the hospitality of Mas-sac and Pope. After the feed the chaperons had to talk and also President August Meyers of Massac, and President Sue Ellen Lay of Pope.

Then the Sunny Smile Singers gave several selections with the help of the whole crowd. Mr. Hotten's solos were enjoyed most of all. If any of you ever want to hear something good give Mr. Hotten a square meal of "hot dog" and there it is.

We visitors certainly enjoyed the "hunt," and we hope that some day we may return the invitation. The county organization is really worth while. Now, all together, let's boost our county same as Pope and Massac
do. "Let's go."

When first we practice to deceive!
But when we've practiced it a bit,
We make a better job of it!

S. H.

John D. Rockefeller received $4 a week from his first job. So did we,
and there is where the parallel ceases.

S. H.

A big, tall, gawky, dangling looking nigger about six feet tall, walked into a country grocery store and said,
"Mr. Jones, kin I use your telephone?"

"All right, nigger, help yourself."

"Gimme leven seven forty-four," says the nigger into the phone. "Is dis you, massa Willie,—Yes, dis is Ruddie—Say, Massa Willie, Old
Maude done stopped in front of Mr.
Jones' store and won't go no fudder.
Yas, sir, yas, sir, I done wore the whip out on 'er. Yas, sir, yas, sir,
I done por'd sand in her yars. Yas, sir, yas, sir, I done built a fire under 'er. She just moved up a little and de wagon it burnt up all 'cept one wheel. No, say, I didn't twist her tail. No, sar, he ain't dead yet;
de ambulance done too him 'way.

"Our Minds Begin to Wander"

Say, Massa Willie, do you all want me to come on home and leave Old Maud?"

S. H.

Senior: "I am indebted to you for all I know."

Prof.: "Don't mention it, it is just a mere trifle."

S. H.

"Do you know why we call our language the 'mother tongue?'"

"Because father never gets a chance to use it."

THE EDITOR RECEIVES A LETTER

The following are extracts from a letter the editor received from a student at Charleston who is coming here next term:

"Please send me at some convenient time, (or have it sent) a Normal Bulletin so I may arrange my course. I can say they have a fine school, but I like something else besides. "You should have heard the boys talk about the orchestra and band and the way they were treated at Carbondale. They haven't either a band or orchestra up here, no clubs, societies or any social affairs at all except a school dance once a week, studying all the time."

"Please enter my name on the waiting list of the Agora Debating Club."

Eng. 1 pupil: "What part of the body is 'fray'?"

Miss Trovillion: "Fray, what are you talking about?"

Pull: "This book says Ivanhoe was wounded in the fray."

NAUGHTY! NAUGHTY!
The sofa sagged in the center,
The shades were pulled just so.

The family had retired,
The parlor light burned low.
There came a sound from the sofa,
As the clock was striking two,
And the co-ed stampped her text-book
With a thankful — "Well, I'm through!"

Other jokes and puns remind us
We may have some bum ones too,
Blame yourself—they'd sure be better
If you'd hand us in a few.

Society Brand Clothes

They Have a Style All Their Own

That swagger effect—it's a style in which all men look good. That's why it's so popular. We have it, in Society Brand; you've never seen it expressed in a more individual manner. These overcoats are here for you to see, we're here to show them to you.

In Society Brand overcoats, too, the price varies with the fabric—but the workmanship is the same.

Silk, Wool or Cotton—It Fits!

Whether dainty silk knit or soft warm wool, Athena Underwear is trim and shapely. Whatever the style, it has the extra width through bust and hips, the graceful neckline sloping to the front, the fitted seat that always stays closed. Unlike ordinary underwear, Athena follows every curve of the figure closely, yet naturally. It assures, at the same time, perfectly fitting gowns and an unusually delightful feeling of easy freedom. Yet it costs no more!

ATHENA UNDERWEAR

For Women and Children

Ask the saleswoman to lay out for you a suit of Athena as shown in the diagram. Note the seven distinctive Athena features that give the whole garment such unusual shapeliness. Then you will understand why it really fits. Athena may be had in all styles and weights, in knit fabrics.
